Alexandria is a beautiful young girl of Haitian heritage, born in December 1993. She is described by those who know her as caring, well mannered, and engaging. She has goals for her future and hopes to be a singer. Alexandria dreams of one day becoming an “America’s Idol”! Like many girls her age, she loves to shop. She also enjoys reading and horseback riding.

Alexandria needs structure and clear boundaries to help provide the security she needs to grow and mature.

A one or two parent family with older children who can offer her understanding and patience will help her become a successful young lady. Alexandria thrives in a family environment that is supportive and secure. In return her new family will share the laughter and tenderness of this girl who is so eager to become a part of a family.
